What would you do if you discovered that your closet was magical?

Our young girl has a dream one night. She dreams that a fairy gives her a magical closet, and in the closet are clothes that can transform her into special characters. A skirt that turns her into a Spanish dancer, a snow jacket that makes snow begin to fall, and even a pair of sneakers that turn her into a world champion runner are just a few of the items in her new and magical closet.

But she soon realizes that the closet was not given to her by a fairy; it's the same closet she's always had. All it takes is one sleepover with her friends, and their magical imaginations, to help her to see that it's not only fairies that make magic happen – magic always happens whenever you are happy.

A beautifully-illustrated tale for children aged three to seven years old. The story will help them to understand that magic does not have to come from somewhere else; magic is within each of us, but it only happens when we are truly happy with what we already have.
