The way I saw it— I can flip burgers for eight bucks an hour, or get my ass spanked for five hundred. No contest. None.

College is awesome... at least until Carter receives an ominous letter in the mail informing him he owes thousands of dollars in tuition and they are withholding his credits.

What's a guy to do?

Carter has always had a penchant for looking at kink, but after filling out a profile on a spanking social platform, he never imagined himself partaking in such activities. But the gorgeous, older Rick Stonestreet is prepared to make him an offer he can't resist!

Notice: This short story contains scenes of an explicit nature between consenting adults and is intended only for a mature audience.
