In the fourth volume of his blockbuster series, Woodward masterfully reveals the emotions, struggles, and behind-the-scenes manoeuvring of Bush's waning years in office and the wars that will define his presidency. Woodward provides a groundbreaking how and why of the decision-making process - including secret plans, meetings, memos, and conversations. The result is an exhaustive, unfiltered narrative of the history of our times, from the White House to the Pentagon, from the State Department to the CIA, from the bureaucracy of Washington to the battlefields of Iraq.
