As a Man Thinketh so Is He Maria Anne Hirschmann

Maria Anne Hirschmann, better known as Grandma Hansi, wrote this book in response to the learning experiences God taught her as she watched her co-worker and best friend, Betty Pershing, change with dementia into a confused and stubborn child. She was not able to think from cause to conclusion any more, but she never lost her spiritual bearings. After several years of research about the human brain, Hansi put her notes together into a small book, which even a busy reader will be able to absorb in a short time. Hansi wrote this book at age 86; it is the latest of many books she wrote during her long ministry for the Lord. She is foremost known for her autobiography, Hansi, the Girl Who Left the Swastika, which has become a classic and has been translated into many languages.
