KYA Weekly Music Charts: 1965 - 1969 Frank W. Hoffmann

KYA was a leading Top 40 AM radio outlet in the San Francisco Bay Area during the late 1950s up through the 1970s. Its pop music surveys at the peak of its popularity, the 1965-1969 period, have be reproduced in this volume. Also includes an essay covering the station's history. Like the other radio charts titles, my goal was to provide a convenient chronological compilation of weekly surveys with corrections of the considerable errors found in both the original sources and in translation to online sites. These radio charts – which exist in the public domain – can be found in a multitude of sources, including original published sheets distributed via retail outlets, mail inquiries, etc., notation of on-air broadcasts, back issues of area newspapers (where stations are located) and music trade periodicals, specialized reference books, and websites interested in historical documentation, most notably, Oldieslooon, musicradio77, and ARSA. I employed multiple sources in the compilation of each radio chart volume in order to provide the most accurate data possible.
