When life gets complicated, New York Times bestselling author Sherryl Woods proves family—and love—can make all the difference

Facing a personal crisis, ambitious and driven Gabriella Castle retreats to the welcoming arms of her family. Everything she's worked for has been yanked out from under her, and she seeks the serenity of her grandmother's home on the North Carolina coast. With difficult decisions to make about her future, the last thing she wants is an unexpected love.

Wade Johnson fell for Gabi the first time he saw her. It's not the only time he's found himself in the role of knight in shining armor, but Gabi isn't looking for a rescuer. To get her to stay, Wade will need a whole lot of patience and gentle persuasion...and maybe the soothing sound of wind chimes on a summer breeze.

Oh come on your studying sixth sense already said so why you have to listening to one more sixth sense.

Patrice Lach:

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Wind Chime Point (An Ocean Breeze Novel) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
