Daughters of the Sun (Warrior Series Book 2) Karah Quinney

Karah Quinney brings readers her most thrilling and intriguing novel yet—a suspenseful story of ancient secrets and the quest for power—brilliantly paced and exquisitely crafted.

High upon the Great Mountain, an ancient village of sun worshippers seeks to renew the sun. After twelve innocent girls are taken from the jungle below, the Agali leader gives them a gift of startling wonder: a sun disk with esoteric designs, made out of pure gold.

Amidst the vast and ancient rainforest, one man shoulders the responsibility of life and death. River is a battle-scarred warrior with a past that haunts him. Lark is the woman that he has chosen as his mate, but her sister has been taken, and she will not rest until she is safe.

Thrust into the heart of danger, River and Lark must work together to defeat an unconquerable enemy. As they race to unravel the mysteries of the past, they must rely upon each other while using their power, keen instincts, and strength to survive.
