A Day in the Life of President Kennedy Jim Bishop

"To my eternal sorrow, I was the last writer to work with President Kennedy on an exclusive story. Therefore, I asked to have it published as it was written, without anything added or changed, when the world was bright for him and the future held the war promise of goodness and victory. What you will read in this book is a portrait of the Kennedy family as it looked then - with no premonition that, for him, time had run out." -- Jim Bishop, author
