“The Duke’s Search for a Wife- First Time Romance” is a romantic novel set in the Regency Era. Edward Conner is the Duke, who comes back to London, after completing his studies, in search of a wife. His family has some high-end plans for him. But, he comes across a gorgeous lady, Amelia in the Brackcliffe village and falls in love with her on the first sight. She also admires his outlooks but later finds out that there is another part of the Duke’s personality, which is really hard to bear for the rest of her life. She searches for the child in Edward she used to admire during yesteryears. But, she fails to do so. She rethinks her decision to devote herself to the Duke because she has saved herself all her life for a person she would genuinely love. With the course of time, some events take place that exhibit the vulnerability of Edward. Will Edward ever get the girl he loves? Will Amy ever sleep with Edward?
