The Leaves of Llewellyn Keep (Hearts and Houses Book 2) Ruby Loren

Llewellyn Keep is haunted by a headless horror. At least, that's what the hordes of ghost hunters all trying to break into the Keep believe.

Emily Haversson has been hired by Mr Smith, the manager of the Keep, to help him prove to the ghost hunters that the spectre they're obsessed with has no basis in historical fact. Mr Smith is hoping she's the answer to all of his problems, but when a ghostly woman in white appears to Emily, suddenly things aren't so simple...

To make matters worse, Emily is distracted from her research by the annoyingly attractive Sam Rider, whose family own Llewellyn Keep. She knows she's falling for him, but will her feelings ever be returned?

Something strange is going on at Llewellyn Keep and Emily and Mr Bumble the cat are determined to get to the bottom of it. Are they caught up in a ghost hoax, or does Llewellyn Keep genuinely have a paranormal problem?

Emily Haversson has another mystery on her hands...

About the author: Ruby Loren devours romance and mystery books by the bundle and is delighted to share her passion for cozy mysteries with the world. She went on several day trips to local historical sites in order to gain the experience needed to write the Hearts and Houses mystery series.
