And Now You Know: The Rest of the Story from Lives of Well-Known Latter-Day Saints Larry E. Morris

And Now You Know presents fifty behind-the-scenes stories of prominent Church members you only thought you knew. In this rare collection, author Larry E. Morris reveals startling true experiences in a 'rest-of-the-story' format that will keep you guessing as each tale unfolds. Who was responsible for the tragic accident that caused his younger brother's blindness? Which general Relief Society president endured the loss of her eldest son in a violent Indian attack? Who tenderly cared for her deaf sister during the last twenty-five years of her life while shouldering enormous responsibilities as the wife of a Church president? Each story recalls a forgotten fact from Church history and provides a lesson in faith, courage, and determination. Well documented and presented, And Now You Know opens little-known corners of the past, providing an interesting and personal look at experiences of prominent members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Like Brother Morris's previous book, A Treasury of Latter-day Saint Letters, And Now You Know offers excellent material for talks and lessons, encouragement in times of difficulty, and the pure joy of inspiring reading.
