Insurgent (Divergent book2) is a story about Tris Prior found out first hand how powerful each choice we make can be. While she transformed her life by leaving her faction for Dauntless, the choice also destroyed everything she thought she knew of her world. After initiation day ended with horror and death instead of celebration, Tris must try to save her loved ones while wrestling with questions of grief, forgiveness, identity, loyalty, politics and love. With war looming between factions, even more secrets will surface, sides will be chosen, and choices will become even more powerful. Tris must embrace her Divergence or risk losing everything and more she has tried so hard to protect....
