"Married to her high school sweetheart, Kelly has been happy with Jeff for years. But after a job transfer takes them across country, Kelly finds herself dissatisfied with her life. Her career in the vile world of The Law isn't panning out the way she thought that it would, her husband has grown distant, and she's just met Zach, a man to whom she finds herself ridiculously attracted. Following a series of misadventures and misunderstandings, Kelly finds herself faced with a difficult realization: the man she's in love with may not be the man she's married to.

Jeff has loved Kelly since they were just kids. But his new job and Kelly's recent erratic behavior have left him buried under a mountain of stress and doubt. Just when they're ready to buy their first home, Kelly drops a bombshell that may destroy their marriage.
