Three books in this boxed set explain the ways of Menzoberranzan in detail. Book One: The City gives the reader a tour of the streets and districts, a wealth of information on various practices and customs, and an overview of daily life for each class of citizen (and non-citizen). Book Two: The Houses presents all eighteen major and minor Houses of the city, including the Matron Mothers and their immediate families, as well as any important advisers and associates. Book Three: The Adventure gives players a chance to take their characters into the web of deceit and intrigue woven by the denizens of this famed city. Additionally, this boxed set includes: * four connecting poster-sized maps of the city proper; * one poster map of the House Baenre compound; * a poster showing the rivalries and alliances among all eighteen major and minor houses; * a 16-page House Do'Urden retrospective and the collected essays of Drizzt; * twelve cardsheets containing in-depth statistics on main characters from Houses Nurbonnis and Millithor, and small maps for use in the adventure; * and a full-color poster of the stunning box cover art by Jeff Easley.
