Half Blood Origins #1 - Cadence's fate was near written in stone. She would grow up to be a druggie, abused and unloved by those she tried to please. It was bad enough that her past was littered with old gross men having their way with her. To unwrite the stone, she leaped from the edge. She was on the brink of death when she was found and rescued by a dragon. This kindly beast has much to share with her, but it is up to her to find out how this rewrites her entire life. She finally has a chance to make right the world she lives in, but can she make right the world itself? Her goals for her life may be derailed along the way, but she must make the changes in her life to allow her to be what she is, a human dragon. And thus begins the world of the Red Dragon...
