Bound to Night (Sisters of the Moon Book 1) Nina Croft

Novella - approx 23000 words

(2nd edition)

Waking up after a brutal werewolf attack, telepath Tasha Grant finds herself a prisoner of The Facility, an organization carrying out illegal research into the paranormal. She dreams of freedom, a normal life, and going home, but after eight long years, she believes it will never happen. Her life changes with the arrival of the stunningly gorgeous Jack, the latest unwilling guest of The Facility. Passion flares between them, but Jack refuses to share his body or his mind.

Jack must fight his burning desire for Tasha; he has a job to do—destroying The Facility—plus a very good reason for keeping his distance from for the young werewolf. Only when they escape their prison, does he admit his feelings and accept the possibility of a future together. However, Tasha yearns for a normal life, and Jack is a vampire...

As the past unravels and they uncover the secrets behind Tasha's attack, she realizes that 'home' is farther away than ever. Now, she must decide if that matters when the alternative is a place at Jack's side...
