Princess Katherine has found herself in a precarious predicament. Through an arranged marriage set in motion years before, she has found herself engaged to the cruel King Philip. Philip's rival from a neighboring kingdom is advancing, attempting to free his brother, whom Philip holds captive. Katherine secretly attempts to locate Philip's prisoner, King Matthew, hoping that together they can find a way to escape Philip's devious clutches. However, Katherine has not spoken since a tragic event years ago and, now she must rely on others to help her find her voice and find her path to freedom. Meanwhile, King Matthew's brother King Caleb is building his forces, ready to avenge his stolen brother and restore him to his throne. Will Caleb be in time to release his brother before Philip allies with his insidious cousin, King Leopold? Will Katherine escape from Philip and find her true love? This story of love and heartache will leave you breathless. A tale of love and war full of so many twists and turns, you'll find yourself both shocked and elated as the story unwinds. Deck of Cards is a spellbinding journey, which will keep you hanging on every word until the captivating ending.
