Legend of the Celtic Stone (Caledonia Book #1) Michael Phillips

All of Great Britain is shocked by the unexpected announcement that the queen is abdicating the throne to her son, the Prince of Wales. Then, days before the coronation ceremony, the legendary Stone of Scone, upon which every monarch is crowned, is stolen from Westminster Abbey. Political tensions rise, and while both the IRA and the Scottish nationalists are suspected, no one has the answer to the puzzling crime.

Young Parliament member Andrew Trentham is chagrined by the theft and wary of the winds of nationalism sweeping down from the north. Despite the troubling state of national affairs, the mystery inspires him to learn more about his own roots. But the more he learns about his Scottish ancestry, the more questions he has.
