The Mousetrap Agatha Christie

A group of strangers is stranded in a boarding house during a snow storm, one of whom is a murderer. The suspects include the newly married couple who run the house, and the suspicions in their minds nearly wreck their perfect marriage. Others are a spinster with a curious background, an architect who seems better equipped to be a chef, a retired Army major, a strange little man who claims his car has overturned in a drift, and a jurist who makes life miserable for everyone. Into their midst comes a policeman, traveling on skis. He no sooner arrives, when the jurist is killed. Two down, and one to go. To get to the rationale of the murderer's pattern, the policeman probes the background of everyone present, and rattles a lot of skeletons. Another famous Agatha Christie switch finish! Chalk up another superb intrigue for the foremost mystery writer of her time.

Alexandra Robbins:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Mousetrap can make you really feel more interested to read.
