Storm: Book 2 Evelyn Rosado

I need to stay away from him. Far away. But Chase Alexander has everything girl craves. Penetrating green eyes that stop me dead in my tracks. Rock hard abs that beg for my tongue to lick each and every ridge. Bulging, inked arms that make me want to trace my fingertips over every contour.

But there's more to him than the outer shell. Much more. He makes me feel alive, like I'm not bound to my screwed up past. He gets me. When I'm around him, all the pain in my life fades away. With him I feel like a new me is on the brink and the world is at my footsteps.

But he's hiding something from me. Something dark. Something dangerous. He's pushing me away—to save me from his secrets. I know better than to stay. I should run away as fast as I can from him. But without him, I don't know if I can weather the storm.
