Designed to help you every step of the way Your Handbook Guide to Planning and Backpacking Abroad answers important questions such as: How can I travel for 12 months or more on a small budget? What are the 8 different types of travel? How much should I budget for when travelling? What should I pack when travelling abroad? Is it best to travel solo or with a friend? What are six ways to get dirt cheap flights? What should I look for when purchasing travel insurance? What are my four different options for accommodation and how can I maximise my accommodation budget? What are the most common scams I am likely to encounter, how can I avoid them and what should I do if I get caught up in them? What is acceptable tipping and donation etiquette when traveling abroad? How can I best stay in touch with family and friends and create a lasting memory of my trip? How do I budget for a country and ensure that I can travel as cheaply as possible? What should I do if being solicited for a bribe by the police or immigration? Written by a long term traveller with over forty countries worth of travel experience Your Handbook Guide to Planning and Backpacking Abroad takes into account every style of travel and offers practical advice for first time travellers who are travelling abroad.
