Six of the Best Gary Speakman

Imagine being caught up in a world of espionage and deceit and you're in so deep that you are never quite sure if today will be your last. Fleeing his homeland Steve Raemoss moved to a new life in Liverpool. Approached and contracted to work for the British government spending many years putting his life on the line for Queen and country before finally taking the decision to retire from active service. Using his skills as a freelance agent Raemoss travels from place to place retrieving items to order and bringing them back to their rightful owners. He soon realises that he will need his friends to help him to get through to the end of his latest adventure.
